

Guitar Festival 2008 and upcoming movies... - February 01, 2008

Many movie productions have moved up from New Orleans to Shreveport, resulting in James renting out his club for the movie The Guardian starring Kevin Costner and Ashton Kutcher, in 2006. James ended up with a role in the movie.

Now, two more productions are shooting in Shreveport and James will have a part in both of them: Wonderful World starring Matthew Broderick and Soul Men starring Samuel L. Jackson. Both movies are set for release later this year.

The James Burton International Guitar Festival will be held again in August in Shreveport, following Elvis Week on the 22nd till the 24th. More information will follow.